

Green Devil's Pantry & Closet

“Promoting dignity and modeling benevolence.”

History: Begun in 2006 with a $500 grant, Tracey Keim originally designed the GDP&C as a project to assist students with suits and dresses for dances and interviews. From those many garments grew something much larger in size and scope—where when something was needed, there was a place to go. Scholars who enter know they are looked after because they are Green Devils. The door opens dozens of times each week meaning we serve hundreds each year.
