

Life Insurance Medical History Statement (Online Application) Instructions – Standard Insurance Company

If you have made an election that is subject to Evidence of Insurability (as a new hire, during annual enrollment or during a qualifying event), then you must complete your Medical History Statement using the Standard Insurance Company's online statement.

The Medical History Statement is required on the following:

- New Hires - Employee Coverage: EOI is required if you elect an amount of coverage in excess of the Guarantee Issue amount of $250,000 as a new hire.
- New Hires - Spouse Coverage: EOI is required if you elect an amount of coverage in excess of the Guarantee Issue amount of $250,000 as a new hire.
- Qualifying Event: EOI is required when employees want to make a new election or increase coverage due to a qualifying event such as marriage or birth of a child.
- Annual Enrollment: EOI is required on any addition or increase in coverage on the employee or spouse

This statement is only required if you are requesting employee life insurance that requires a Life Insurance Medical History Statement. The process takes approximately 15 minutes.

NOTE: You need to have the amount of coverage you are requesting, all physician names and addresses and personal information (social security number, birthdate, employee's hire date and current salary) in order to begin. Below are instructions to guide you through the process to ensure a successful submission.
