Principals report:

- Data from cycle one assessment complete.
 - Currently in the last year of a nine year school assessment system. Unsure what the new assessment system will look like but are aware that it will not be the current assessment model.
 - Preliminary results indicate that we have outperformed prior assessments overall.
 - Historically Biology and US History have been behind but are showing improvement after cycle one
- Sports
 - Fall sports are complete. Five swimmers qualified for Regional (from a team of 12).
- Band
 - Scored second highest that they have in school history.
 - Small but mighty group and new band director Mr. Blount is currently working on recruiting more members
- Theatre
 - Performance of Mid-Summer Jersey were a success with full audiences
- Courtyard
 - Still aiming for ribbon cutting in January

Unfinished Business:

- School has not received allocation from DOE for current year.

New Business: None
