Say Something Week was March 4th through March 10th.

Sandy Hook Promise's Say Something program teaches elementary, middle, and high school students to recognize the warning signs of someone at-risk of hurting themselves or others and how to say something to a trusted adult to get help. Students will recognize trusted adults both in the school as well as in their community throughout the week.

The word of the month for March is Responsibility. Responsibility is doing your best and taking ownership for your words and actions.
