

MORGAN FITZGERALD CENTER FOR GIFTED STUDIES PROGRAM REVIEW

Please Join Us..

You are invited to join members from the Gifted and Student Assignment Offices for a Center for Gifted Studies Program Review Listen and Learn Session. During this session, district representatives will share Center for Gifted Studies program history and how the review process shapes and guides our DAP program development.

The Gifted and Student Assignment Offices are visiting all seven Centers for Gifted Studies to gather information from all stakeholders as part of a program review. You will get to share your thoughts and insights to review and improve Center for Gifted Studies programs.

A report will be created by our Assessment, Accountability, and Research department after they compile and analyze responses. This report will be shared with all stakeholders and schools.
